Partnership Risk Management Toolkit

Every partnership involves risks: you need a proven way to assess, prioritise, reduce and manage them. Our Partnership Risk Management Toolkit is a complete set of checklists, questionnaires and other documents designed to identify low, medium and high-risk partnerships, and develop strategies to manage them. And by giving you and your partners a common language and long-term approach, the toolkit will help you avoid the biggest risk of all – the failure of the partnership itself.

The Content

The templates in the first section uses matrices and resources to help you decide whether you're in a low, medium or high-risk partnership, by evaluating the risks to your own organisation and its goals, and the combined risks and opportunities you and the partners are facing. A simple checklist covers low-risk partnerships: there's a Risk Assessment for medium-risk partnerships, and a Due Diligence checklist, plus advice on when to apply it for high-risk partnerships. Further tools then help identify priorities, to ensure risks are managed and resources allocated appropriately for each partnership.

Subsequent sections deal with identifying risk, causes, outcomes and controls, assessing likelihood and impact and monitoring risks, plus specific examples of partnership risks and solutions. The Toolkit also contains governance and risk management processes for both simple and complex partnerships, and considers the pros and cons of different models.

What you'll get out of it...

- A common language for managing risk between you and your partners
- Clearly defined priorities and goals for you and your partners
- A process for identifying the highest-risk partnerships
- Resources allocated where they're most needed
- A clear sense of the partnership's importance in meeting your own goals
- Sustained enthusiasm and engagement among the partners to achieve goals
- A flexible business asset with a licence for unlimited use throughout your whole organisation

...and what we've put into it

Developed with the London Risk Management Group, representing a cross-section of public-sector risk management professionals, the Toolkit includes

- A full set of templates for you to complete
- Comprehensive guidance notes
- PowerPoint presentation with speaker's notes

It's supplied as both bound hard-copy and on CD-ROM in MS Word and .pdf format, so you can adapt it to your own systems and language.
